AVAYA

Title: Global End of Sale and Support Notification for the following Avaya Security Gateways (European Union end of sale was announced in June 06):

End of Sale Notification
SG5, SG5 Pro, SG200, RFA SG Licenses and VPNmanager

Notification Date: June 6, 2007

As of August 6th, 2007, Avaya will no longer sell the following hardware components (European Union end of sale was announced in June 06): SG5, SG5 Pro and the SG200. Additional discontinued items include RFA SG licenses and VPNmanager software.

The replacement products include Avaya's G250 & G350 Gateways for the branch office location. The G250 / G350 products are a suitable replacement solution built on Avaya's VoIP intelligence combined with secure branch site data connectivity enabled via IPSec.

Additional migration offers include solutions offered by Juniper (DevConnect Program Member). Juniper security product families include the NS series, SA series, IDP Series, Network Management and the recently announced SSG series of products.
